

7TH ENGLISH – SPELLING SENTENCES

CHAPTER 1

1. Ginny enjoys the challenge of rock climbing.
2. Human babies are dependent upon their parents.
3. Iowa has fertile soil.
4. Jack noticed people were giving him peculiar looks.
5. What is your color preference?
6. The principal cause of most success is hard work.
7. Sharon's blue dress was suitable for a funeral.
8. Ned enjoyed a solitary vacation.
9. The restaurant donated its surplus food.
10. My sister plans to transform this messy attic.

CHAPTER 2

1. The laboratory will analyze the blood sample.
2. Athletes need to have a positive attitude.
3. The store didn't have much in the category of classical music.
4. The contrast between the two was stark.
5. My boss can be very critical.
6. Molly's comment was quite deliberate.
7. Excessive speed caused the accident.
8. Bones become fragile with age.
9. Ellen felt great frustration.
10. Jeff indicated he disliked the plan.

CHAPTER 3

1. Words usually accompany popular tunes.
2. The earthquake victims are desperate for water.
3. The doctor determined the ankle was sprained.
4. John disposed of his old clothes.
5. My aunt's gray hair is evident.
6. It is improper to go to a restaurant without shoes.
7. Steps are being taken to preserve the painting.
8. My sister wants to pursue an art degree.
9. Rejection is a part of life.
10. The Statue of Liberty was restored.

CHAPTER 4

1. Our apple tree bore an abundant crop.
2. The prisoners of war refused to betray their country.
3. Tim made a comparison of two cars.
4. The salesman demonstrated how to use the camera.
5. My dispute with my brother ended abruptly.
6. The faces in the old photo were not distinct.
7. Please do not exaggerate!
8. Bats often inhabit attics.
9. Switzerland has been a neutral country.
10. Most politicians promise a reduction in taxes.

CHAPTER 5

1. Walking on a sprained ankle may aggravate the injury.
2. The snowfall finally ceased.
3. We try to make our visits coincide.
4. A garden takes considerable time.
5. Zoos believe natural animal housing is more humane.
6. The fire was intentional.
7. Settle your problems without my interference.
8. The chicken farm smell was obnoxious.
9. The ladder felt unstable.
10. Stale bread can be utilized for croutons.

CHAPTER 6

1. I advise you to take notes in class.
2. Current research is reinforcing previous research.
3. Dad thinks a diet deprives him of all good food.
4. I hesitated too long.
5. Always maintain a safe distance between cars.
6. The minimum number is eight.
7. Liz had a strong objection to the plan.
8. Do you know how the hot dog originated?
9. The judge decided to penalize the thief.
10. Joe is a reliable mechanic.

CHAPTER 7

1. Try to avoid making abrupt stops.
2. The announcement astonished the employees.
3. The collector classified her stamps by countries.
4. Income tax forms are very complex.
5. Applicants must consent to a drug test.
6. Our dog is always eager to greet us.
7. We'll have to endure a long winter.
8. The crowd exclaimed as the fireworks burst in the sky.
9. Horizontal stripes make one look bigger.
10. Can you recollect much about first grade?

CHAPTER 8

1. Sandals are not adequate footwear.
2. The police sometimes appeal to the public for help.
3. I was very awkward at thirteen.
4. In Ireland it is customary to eat a light meal at night.
5. Who established the first lending library?
6. My grandmother had the potential to be a great teacher.
7. Children like to respond without talking.
8. How do you know he won't vanish?
9. A variety of wildflowers bloom in spring.
10. We bought wholesome fruits and vegetables.

CHAPTER 9

1. My brother was a brutal criminal in the play.
2. The ballplayer was disciplined.
3. Eliminate most wrinkles by hanging up your clothes.
4. Much emphasis was given to reading.
5. I don't believe your story; furthermore, your work is late.
6. The dentist took time to interpret the x-ray.
7. The little boy proposed buying his parents a puppy.
8. I resorted to ketchup on pasta.
9. He paid his teacher the ultimate compliment.
10. Give detailed answers, not vague ones.

CHAPTER 10

1. My grandfather was accustomed to sweet tea.
2. We anticipated a severe snowstorm.
3. My father likes to linger at social events.
4. We were miserable on our camping trip.
5. Jay misinterpreted his wife's request.
6. A robbery occurred at the restaurant.
7. My little sister likes one particular game.
8. We're reluctant to have people know our number.
9. It is important to revise your writing.
10. The student did not like the abridged version of the novel.

7TH ENGLISH – SPELLING SENTENCES

CHAPTER 11

1. We assumed the sun would shine.
2. Andy was conscious that people were whispering.
3. The external appearances of the two houses were similar.
4. The moon landing was an incredible achievement.
5. Check the internal temperature of the roast.
6. What is the maximum speed for this airplane?
7. Many people showed up to protest.
8. Grandma's remedy for a cold was bizarre.
9. The girl made a spectacle of herself.
10. The judge's verdict was a shock.

CHAPTER 12

1. My uncle was fitted for an artificial arm.
2. Don't complicate the game with too many rules.
3. Sue's conscience bothered her.
4. My coach counseled me to work fewer hours.
5. If you detect a gas leak, call for help.
6. The frequency of their visits has gone down.
7. Will a lawyer represent you?
8. A temporary worker will be hired.
9. Transparent wrap is see through.
10. We celebrated our team's triumph.

CHAPTER 13

1. The hikers felt an agonizing thirst.
2. The energetic toddler finally fell asleep.
3. Jill had the foresight to apply to several colleges.
4. The interval was smaller than expected.
5. He doesn't appear to be likely to prosper.
6. Climbers strive to reach the top of Mount Everest.
7. Gold is a soft substance.
8. His boss had little tolerance for others' suggestions.
9. What is your worst trait?
10. I quickly withdrew my bid.

CHAPTER 14

1. A month is approximately thirty days.
2. I work for someone with a consistent manner.
3. How do you cope with difficult people?
4. It is hard to evaluate which program is best.
5. Is that a sentence or a phrase?
6. Jane hoped her friend would listen to her plea.
7. Mom puts old socks to practical use as dust rags.
8. The movement of clouds is not random.
9. Attitude can play a significant role in health.
10. The sole reason my cousin calls me is to ask for money.

CHAPTER 15

1. An authentic painting would be costly.
2. What are characteristic parts of your diet?
3. My aunt doesn't understand the concept of living within a budget.
4. The lawyer plans to confront the accused man.
5. The dog disrupted the show.
6. He was not eligible to run for office.
7. The harsh ruler was disliked.
8. That park is very remote.
9. That pan is too shallow for a cake.
10. A plant should thrive in that sunny window.

CHAPTER 16

1. Will's smile made it apparent he had done well.
2. The automatic washing machine saves time.
3. The lie became a great burden to him.
4. It's usually more economical to buy large packages.
5. Sue feels it is extravagant to buy jewelry.
6. Joe hopes to fulfill his dream of visiting China.
7. All friends influence us.
8. The owner installed a security system.
9. The whole town sympathized with the mayor.
10. I have to transfer my books into boxes.

CHAPTER 17

1. My father's poor health bewildered his doctor.
2. Many people communicate by telephone.
3. The salesman tried to deceive the customer.
4. Our new babysitter is very earnest.
5. Many people have trouble talking about their emotions.
6. Some newspapers print obvious fiction.
7. The FBI has been called to investigate.
8. The fancy script isn't very legible.
9. Being outspoken doesn't have to mean being rude.
10. The detective's theory was proven true.

CHAPTER 18

1. Can you assure me this will work?
2. A crucial witness suddenly disappeared.
3. Traffic had to be diverted for hours.
4. The company made extraordinary attempts to attract business.
5. The mother robin became frantic.
6. The cat acted hostile toward the new kitten.
7. Bullies humiliate other people.
8. Don't give into an impulse to buy something you don't need.
9. I perceive someone is barbecuing ribs.
10. A bowl of ice cream will revive him.

CHAPTER 19

1. The rescuers had to abandon their search.
2. Please be alert at all times.
3. I do not know the exact circumstances.
4. The kids devoted the entire evening to playing games.
5. What is the function of that red button?
6. The twins seem to dominate the team.
7. I was sick of being idle.
8. I finally overcame my fear of water.
9. Basketball is his primary interest in life.
10. What is the theme of your writing assignment?

CHAPTER 20

1. The driver disregarded the speed limit.
2. Most newspapers printed an excerpt of the speech.
3. Be sure to exclude air from the pickle jars.
4. The advertisement was misleading.
5. The child kept repeating a monotonous request.
6. The soldier obtained a pass to visit his family.
7. A cat's prey includes mice.
8. The thief seized the woman's pocketbook.
9. Not having computer skills hindered Jane's job search.
10. A severe storm hit our area.

7TH ENGLISH – SPELLING SENTENCES

CHAPTER 21

1. Children often have conflict.
2. Heat converts water into steam.
3. Parents need to possess patience.
4. What procedure should I follow?
5. We need a good rain to renew the supply of water.
6. West Virginia's natural resources include coal and timber.
7. My headaches may be caused by stress.
8. The jury's decision was unanimous.
9. The temperature can vary by twenty degrees.
10. He did not want to live in the vicinity of the factory.

CHAPTER 22

1. The teacher wanted to abolish late papers.
2. The country was run by a corrupt ruler.
3. Teeth that are brushed are not likely to decay.
4. The little creek expanded into a river.
5. The bear is tattered, but the boy loves it nevertheless.
6. Be precise when measuring cake ingredients.
7. The dentist promoted good dental care at home.
8. Training classes can reform dogs.
9. Fishermen have a tendency to tell big stories.
10. Lake Superior is so vast.

CHAPTER 23

1. The mayor asserted that he never took bribes.
2. Todd asked someone to clarify his health plan for him.
3. Our dog will do anything to evade a bath.
4. We extended our vacation one more day.
5. Our preconception was wrong.
6. A poisonous mushroom sometimes resembles one that is safe.
7. The guards looked as rigid as poles.
8. Building a new school seems senseless.
9. Clothes with vertical stripes make the wearer look thinner.
10. We took the precaution of having the car tuned up.

CHAPTER 24

1. You seemed anxious before the test.
2. I cannot comprehend how a computer works.
3. The lawyer is sure she can convince the jury.
4. Our gym teacher used dramatic movements.
5. Sometimes it is hard to be frank and polite.
6. Mrs. Fine illustrated the word in a sentence.
7. My first impression was that Joe was loud.
8. Silver is considered to be inferior to gold.
9. Don't overwhelm the kids with too many instructions.
10. I conducted a thorough search for my glasses.

CHAPTER 25

1. Brad acquired a bit of an English accent.
2. Jean has made a commitment to eat healthy food.
3. A formal wedding can be very expensive.
4. The scientist found a tiny fragment of pottery.
5. Have you learned the fundamental operations of math?
6. Eating dinner usually precedes eating dessert.
7. People often resent being given advice they did not ask for.
8. The atmosphere of a funeral is solemn.
9. The players' spite was obvious.
10. A circle with a dot in the middle symbolized the sun.

CHAPTER 26

1. Our neighbors don't associate with anyone.
2. Not being able to read is a great barrier.
3. I estimate he's about sixty.
4. His fatigue was so great that he fell asleep at dinner.
5. That old chair is very flimsy.
6. The family we visited showed us true hospitality.
7. Nothing can justify the way you treated your sister.
8. You should mistrust that type of email.
9. The early Christians were persecuted.
10. What soothes you when you're feeling tired?

CHAPTER 27

1. Brad likes to debate everything.
2. The writer was discredited.
3. The endless wars have displaced millions of families.
4. The babysitter enforced the twins' bedtime.
5. Emily enumerated all the books she wanted to read.
6. To me, most stars look identical.
7. A singular word refers to just one thing.
8. The dog sprawled on the kitchen floor.
9. The water spurted out of the drinking fountain.
10. Our principal seems like a stern man.

CHAPTER 28

1. My uncle wishes he had the books he discarded.
2. My sister held her hands over her ears for the duration of the concert.
3. Grace kept essential study items on her desk.
4. Many parents exhibit their children's artwork.
5. Most juvenile animals are extremely cute.
6. A mature whale can be over 100 feet long.
7. Grandma gave my sister a miniature tea set.
8. Children learn to play with their peers.
9. Nurses wear special sanitary clothing.
10. The earthquake had tragic results.

CHAPTER 29

1. Some people have great capability for foreign languages.
2. Doesn't the cat look content?
3. The team will try to duplicate its victory.
4. We felt an immense sense of relief.
5. Feeling industrious, I cleaned and did laundry.
6. A microscope can magnify a blood cell.
7. The concert had to be postponed for a week.
8. We made the kitchen presentable in a hurry.
9. Forty-five minutes is a more realistic estimate.
10. My grandfather was stunned the first time he saw the ocean.

CHAPTER 30

1. I want to be sure my spelling is accurate.
2. Lynn didn't try to bluff.
3. Middle schools consist of different grades.
4. My nephews always suffer discomfort after holidays.
5. He chose an elementary rule of science to demonstrate.
6. I chose the latter of the two options.
7. The mechanic had to modify the car.
8. A company had dumped toxic waste nearby.
9. Never trifle with the truth.
10. The wicked queen was famous for her vanity.